As you play as that character, you will also acquire some items that you can carry with you during battle and use during combat. You can find these items in your inventory after you enter the game. Depending on your level, your character will have different items. You can carry items as you go through a level until you reach level 5. At this point, each part of your character will have its own level, which means that you cannot wear items in a high level until you reach that level. Your character can have three basic items: Armor . This is the sturdiest piece of clothing. Worn in person or on a mannequin, it will protect you from physical and magical damage and give you a bonus to your movement speed. Clothing that you always have is not armor. It will only protect you from normal damage and has no speed bonus. The armor you are wearing usually costs money, so you can only buy it during quests. Weapons Weapons are your main fighting tool.
