Â .Başak Sefer Başak Sefer (born in Ankara, Turkey, 15 April 1983) is a Turkish journalist and has been reported killed since 30 June 2011.

After going missing on 30 June 2011, it was reported that Sefer was abducted by anti-Gezi protesters. After she was captured, her tortured body was found on 12 July 2011. Sefer's death was later confirmed by a court in Ankara and the State Prosecutor's Office. An autopsy concluded that she had been beaten to death.
The autopsy report also stated that she had been sexually assaulted. The investigation into the circumstances of Sefer's death led authorities to conclude that she was killed at a time when pro-Gezi protesters were taken hostage by police.
Biography Early life Sefer was born on 15 April 1983 in Ankara, the capital of Turkey. She was the only child of Demet Akar, a writer and journalist who died of cancer in 1997, and Sevgi

Ayaydin, a lawyer who died in 2006. Sefer studied literature at Anadolu University. She graduated from Istanbul University's College of Political Sciences in 2005. Career Sefer joined the daily Milliyet newspaper as a reporter in 2005. She was assigned to cover the Middle East. At that time, she also covered the Balkan war in Macedonia. In 2011, Sefer was assigned to cover the Gezi Park protests, which escalated into a nationwide movement against the government. She initially stayed in Istanbul, reporting from the Beyoglu district and using the online name "Ayse Mülka" until 30 June. That day, she was captured by members of the Turkish Special Operations Unit. Death On 30 June 2011, Sefer was captured by members of the Turkish Special Operations Unit. At f30f4ceada
