
Linotype Univers OpenTypezip

this is a completely redesigned version of the original Univers > Univers font family designed by Adrian Frutiger in 1957. Univers fonts are mainly used for diagrams and advertising banners. Unlike the main Calibri family, Univers are designed for flat rather than curved layouts. Univers is the only typeface produced in the USSR (the first officially published in the country is "Dominus"). The author of the font was Lev Shcheglov. In the 1990s, Univers was distributed in various translations under the names: "Univers on Dom", "Cry Dominus", "Dominum et Pax". Minor changes have been made to Univers, in particular, capital letters A and G have appeared (as in the fonts Atom, Arial, etc.). The creators of the font believe that Univers was created specifically for the UNIVERSAL project (a pseudonym for a large group of designers), which began work on in the late 1960s. Univers is currently in free distribution (originally used on t-shirts and accessories, later released in Arial, Verdana and Bold Edit fonts). Univers fonts are used by such companies as Avon, Coca-Cola, Hyundai, Sibirskaya Korona, IT Chemicals, Intuitive Domain, Lilliputian Airlines, MTS, Richmond, Siberian Coast, Sovtransavto, TBD Group, Transneft, Megafon, Pushkinskaya Square, OEK, Capital Pharmacies, Russian Standard, FGC UES, IDGC Holding, Tele2, Taxi SVAO " and others.
