The club have had a difficult season, he's had enough of the Istanbul atmosphere, and now he wants to leave. "Yes, I want to leave the club. I do not want to be here any longer. I have spent years with the club, so this feeling is similar to when I left Barcelona at the end of my career. There is no responsibility, no sense of obligation to stay longer. I have taken my time to think about it, and I've decided that I cannot stay any longer." Valverde has been linked with a move to Inter, but the La Liga side are still waiting for the release clause to be activated in his contract. Fenerbahce are trying to find an alternative solution, one which could see Valverde stay. "At the moment there is no agreement with Fenerbahce, and they are trying to find a suitable solution." Fenerbahce have been linked with making several arrivals in the transfer market this summer, but he isn't concerned about the rumoured deals. "I am not concerned, but I think they are doing what they should do. I think the club is looking to add reinforcements, and I am very confident in the squad." Ernesto Valverde has enjoyed a solid season at Fenerbahce, but a question has arisen on whether the 36-year-old will seek pastures new in the summer. "I have no idea what will happen at the end of the season. Now the club is focused on finding a solution and bringing in new players. We are waiting for their arrival." The Serbian tactician also spoke about Lionel Messi's future, and how the Blaugrana would not have to look far if they wanted to rekindle their form. "I am very happy about what he has achieved and what he has already achieved at Barça. He has made the impossible possible. I wish him all the best for the future." The 26-year-old has been in fine form recently, with

Es precisamente este ordenamiento (i) y la existencia de una mujer-objeto unificada a la de un hombre-objeto, el que ha llevado a que la mujer sea ajena al proceso de educación por parte del hombre, y también lo sea de la educación por parte de la mujer (ii). La educación que ha cultivado los últimos cientos de años la mujer ha hecho que sean digna sólo de papeles de telas o de cánones y de los demonios de la orgía, aunque su cuerpo y su entraña sean más perfectos que los del hombre. Con el fin de poner en su sitio los espíritus, los seres humanos, se les enseñó a pensar como la mujer, a creer en una herencia, a ver el suelo y el cielo, a querer hacer sufrir, a ser tan cruel y tan desagradecida que ahora los hombres, exasperados y heridos por culpa de ellas, abjurarían de los partos y de las naciones (iii). Parece ser que los hombres no consiguieron sino hacer la mujer irracional otra vez con el siglo (iv). Otras gentes hacen lo mismo con otras mujercitas (v). Para nosotros, que somos, hoy, la última generación de críos llegados al mundo (vi), es difícil asumir la iniciación y las responsabilidades que

Also, since citric acid forms an aqueous solution with water even when it is heated, it is conventionally used for encapsulation and preservation, and is used as a food additive. On the other hand, gums derived from plants, such as xanthan gum, guar gum, and locust bean gum, are hydrophilic gums that are soluble in water, and when they are used as food additives, they are used as thickeners. As a method for producing citrus acid, a method is known which comprises subjecting the outer surface of citrus fruit to extraction using alcohol or an acid-containing aqueous solution containing acid as the extraction solvent, and then extracting the inner portion of the citrus fruit with water, thereby producing citrus acid (see Patent Literature 1).
